

Did you know?

N-IUSSP | May 2, 2022

Across the Middle East and North Africa, more than one-in-three citizens (35%) are considering emigrating from their homeland. This level represents a dramatic increase since 2016, which ended a long-term decline in the percentage of citizens who considered migrating. Citizens are more likely to want to leave if they are young, well-educated and male.

Source: Arab Barometer - Wave VI-Part 3 -2021